Against Solitary Confinement

The New Jersey Campaign for Alternatives to Isolated Confinement NJ-CAIC

WHEN: Wednesday, January 11th, 2017, 12:00pm to 1:30pm

WHERE: Cass Street, between Rt. 129 and 2nd Street in Trenton, NJ
Outside the New Jersey State Prison in Trenton, NJ.

WHY:

Governor Christie alleges that solitary confinement does not exist in New Jersey state prisons, but people in our jails, prisons, and immigration detention centers disagree. People of moral conscience, together with prison reform advocates, must come together to acknowledge the very real suffering inflicted through isolation, and must demand a new era of transparency and integrity in our criminal justice system.

ALL ARE INVITED

WITH SPECIAL INVITATION TO:

- ♦ Formerly incarcerated people and their families
- ♦ Religious or secular people of faith and moral conscience
- ♦ Human and prisoner rights organizations
- ♦ Mental health practitioners and advocates
- ♦ NJ gubernatorial candidates and legislators
- ♦ Members of the press
